Letter to KANA

Clarence Potrybus wrote

We are here in London preparing for our annual reunion. (Ed: the reunion has been held in Kaszubia in past years.) The reunion was at St. Bede's Church, London, England SW 120LF. It celebrated the annual Ladybug Farm 2002 "Ladybug & Saint Nick Reunion" here at cousin Father Marek Kalent's Church where he is studying "English" prior to assignment to Polish missions in Africa on January 1, 2003 and we sponsored a "Farewell Roast" for him here in London on Sunday, November 10, 2002.

Clarence added as a footnote that his wife, Marilyn was "too ill to travel, but not serious." We wish her a speedy recovery.

Clarence can be reached at 165 Indian Pond Road, Hwy 80; Kingston MA 02364

(Continuing the article in Wiarus)

Derdowski went to houses in Minnesota, Michigan and Wisconsin collecting money from those who ordered the Wiarus who did not pay for it and he also was getting new subscriptions. He went to a house the day before, a very poor house in terrible condition and there were people playing cards and the friend of Derdowski introduced him to the people and asked if there was anyone interested in buying the paper and after a second all of those people they gave $2.00 saying they want his paper. Only one man gave 50 cents because he wanted a different paper too. It is a funny case because they all lived in the same house but they each wanted their own paper. It is different in Winona because in Winona even rich people they do not buy the paper for themselves, they borrow it from one another.
